

Looking for Research Participants

To help reduce burden of caregiving on health of Asian American midlife women family caregivers of persons living with Alzheimer's Disease [PLAD].

JOIN US IF YOU:

- Are aged between 40 and 65.
- Can read and write English, Mandarin Chinese, or Korean.
- Live in United States.
- Have access to Internet.
- Identify as Chinese or Korean.
- Are a community-dwelling family caregiver of a person living with Alzheimer's Disease [PLAD] (clinical dementia rating greater than or equal to 1).
- Are providing at least 4 hours per day (on average) assistance to PLAD.

WHO WE ARE

Dr. Eun-Ok Im and her team at The University of Texas, Austin want to learn effectiveness of the newly developed program in improving health outcomes of Asian American midlife women who are family caregivers of persons living with Alzheimer's disease .

ABOUT THE STUDY

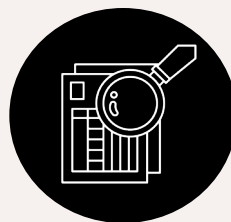

TACAD study is an online study and does not involve medication nor travel.

TACAD is Technology-based Information and Coaching/Support Program for AsiAn American midlife women who are family Caregivers of persons living with Alzheimer's Disease.

COMPENSATION

Up to $150 will be provided during this 3-month study duration.

DETAILS

For any further questions or inquiries, please feel free to contact us via the email address or phone number below.

@ tacad.help@austin.utexas.edu

📞 512-232-2323

🌐 <https://tacad.research.nursing.utexas.edu>